Elk Point celebrates Canada's 148th birthday

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Thick cloud cover and a smoky haze didn't dampen the spirits of Elk Point and district the slightest bit as the community turned out in full force to celebrate Canada's 148th birthday on Wednesday, July 1.

MLA David Hanson, County of St. Paul Coun. Dwight Dach and volunteers Doris Wilson, RubyAnn and Lavern Kittlitz kept the griddles full of pancakes at the Elk Point Municipal Library as the small lineup soon increased to record proportions, sending other volunteers scurrying for additional supplies as break-fasters kept on coming.

Elk Point RCMP Detachment held an early morning open house, with Cst. Ryan Deroche showing visitors through the cells while Sgt. Dave Casey took the RCMP Safety Bear to visit the breakfast crowd. Casey credits F. G. Miller High School student Zoe Ainsworth with "her Academy Award performance" after she volunteered to play the part of that friendly, fellow after Enbridge Pipeline donated the costume.

Visits with the bear were still ongoing and the pancakes were still coming off the grill when lineups started just down the street where the Lakeland Realty staff was scooping out complimentary ice cream cones for visitors to munch while they waited for the parade.

The parade lineup filled Railway Avenue three rows wide with another two rows packing the EcoCentre parking lot and a large contingent of gaily decorated bicycles lining up to head down the street ahead of the parade, led by volunteer supervisor Daniel Peterson. Elk Point's two Lions Clubs played a major role in the parade, the District Lions arranging the lineup and the Community Lions doing the judging, and handing out ribbons and awards to the winners: Children's Clubs and Organizations - 1. Elk Point 4-H Beef Club, 2. Elk Point 4-H Multi Club; Adult Clubs and Organizations - 1. Mabuhay Philippines, 2. Elk Point Elks Lodge, 3. Elk Point Municipal Library; Antique Vehicles - 1. Laurier Dechaine, 2. Lynall Slywka, 3. Henry Amyotte; Business and Industry - 1. Shamrock Valley Enterprises, 2. Play2Learn Daycare, 3. Wilter Automotive.

EVERYBODY AND THEIR BEAR came to the Elk Point Municipal Library Canada Day Breakfast, where the RCMP Safety Bear had time for a cuddle with four little friends. The bear later had the opportunity to wave to all his fans as he rode along with the detachment in the Canada Day Parade.

Excellent crowds lined the route as over 40 floats, vehicles and other entries followed the Vermilion Pipe and Drum band through town in one of the best parades in years.

Stage Show

While food concessions did a brisk business and youngsters cavorted in a trio of bounce castles and dashed through the spray of the water park in the background, the stands soon filled for the afternoon activities on the Alberta Centennial Stage, with everyone's favourite gypsy storyteller Marushka (Denise Bjorkman) as MC. Heaven Colbourne led the singing of O Canada before Elk Point Recreation Director Jena Colbourne invited Elk Point Town Coun. Debra McQuinn on stage to welcome the crowd on behalf of council and to draw the lucky winners of the Great Elk Point Selfie Scavenger Hunt from the names of 15 contestants who were successful in taking selfies with all the listed attractions.

First prize of a West Edmonton Mall getaway went to Shawn Anderson and Cathy Olstad, second prize of a family movie night to Dyalan Loughran and Jenna George and third prize of a family dinner for four to Christina and Mark Moores.

Heaven Colbourne returned to the stage to sing two solos before joining sister Patience in a pair of duets, then it was Patience's turn in the solo spotlight.

Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club was next on the program, Brianne Greening leading the way with her multi-medal-winning Holobar solo. Her son Ty Smereka was next up with a high leaping solo that delighted the crowd, before the set wound up with playful number entitled 'My Toy Box', performed by Avery, Hadley and Evett Smereka and Rhianna Bjorkman.

Maruska entertained and educated the crowd with a series of tidbits of Canadian history before featured entertainer Andrew Scott performed his first set, bringing his little daughter Evelyn and wife Julie on stage for one of the numbers.

Local vocalists Brianne Greening and Brooke Yaremchuk were next on the program, each singing several of their favourites, before a new band from the MD of Bonnyville, True North, made their debut with a series of original numbers before Scott returned to the stage for his final set, which wound up the stage show.

Survivor Challenge

Moments later, the first of 50 teams was at the starting line for the Survivor Challenge. This year's course involved hopping through a set of tires, walking along a strap suspended from soccer goalposts while clinging to other straps suspended from the top rail, clambering over an a-frame structure, jumping four hurdles, making their way across three suspended tire swings, burrowing through four hula hoops and under a camouflage net, sliding down a water slide and squeezing through the new barrel roller, and finally, climbing a suspended net of tires to ring a bell. The agility and energy of the teams was encouraged by fans doing the wave in the packed stands before Charlie Rogal and Dylan Ference were declared the overall winners, completing the course in a very rapid one minute, 32 seconds.

Chili Cook-off

Another competition was already underway by that time, whiffs of spicy delight sneaking out the back door of the A. G. Ross Arena, where twelve competitors were adding the final touches to their family-size pots of chili. Everyone had the opportunity to taste-test the results, in addition to the celebrity judges, who added up their scores, out of a possible total of 50 points for each contestant, while the audience had the opportunity to purchase a bowl of their favourite. The final tally gave Terry Grekul the first place win and $150 cash prize, Carla Ganske placed second for $100 and competition organizer Jay Pankiw was third for $50.

EDITORIAL

Good job, all!

Every year we think that we've done the best job possible on planning and carrying out Elk Point's Canada Day festivities, and the next year we find out that we can do it even better.

This year is another great example of that fact. The pancake breakfast was one of the largest in history and was carried out with lots of help and a minimum of difficulty. The stage show went smoothly, the concessions and pyrogy lunch kept everyone well fed and happy, and the Royal Purple enjoyed having a roof over their heads and their cake, just in case. The new features of the Survivor Challenge were a huge hit, and this year's new attractions, the Chili Cook-off and the beer garden, both proved to be a big hit. The Canada Day Idol and the fireworks display drew their usual appreciative crowds to wrap up the day.

It was a lot of work for the dedicated volunteers who willingly gave of their time to do everything from decorate floats to set up an extensive obstacle course, from boiling pot after pot of pyrogy to setting out chairs for the Idol audience, but the work becomes well worth it, when we hear the positive comments of those who enjoyed all the fun and festivities.

Thanks to all the groups and individuals who were involved in creating another great event, one that makes Elk Point once again "the right place to be" on Canada Day.

FCSS update

The County of St. Paul and the Town of Elk Point Councils are working on a Joint FCSS agreement and new bylaw that will provide for FCSS services for the Elk Point community. In the interim the County FCSS staff will provide services to the community three days per week and will take calls from residents needing FCSS services. The Town of Elk Point Council and FCSS board request the patience of the residents as we work out the details and transition to the new service effective August 1, 2015.

Should you have any questions regarding this, please contact County FCSS at 780-645-1950, the Town of Elk Point at 780-724-3810 or email jfodchuk@county.stpaul.ab.ca

WAY BACK WHEN...

Clandonald reunion, Clay Walker, Crusaders' castle

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JULY 7 IN...

1985

Ron Vogel and Shauna Kinjerski were chosen as Elk Point's Outstanding Youths of the Year as Elk Point celebrated the Year of Youth as part of Canada Day activities. Forty years of students, including the school's first high school graduate Tony Convey came home to Clandonald for a huge reunion of the high school, which operated from 1929 to 1969.

1990

1995

Elk Point and District Lions were roaring with pride over the success of their Truck and Tractor Pull, which was a new and exciting addition to the Canada Day weekend, with the fairgrounds bleachers well filled with spectators both days. A pancake breakfast, parade, stage entertainment, a roast beef dinner and a gospel concert were also part of the two-day celebration. Heinsburg's elementary students wound up the year with awards, with Lauren Peters, Amanda Moyah, Jill Hope, Courtinee Bintz, Dewie Saddleback, Tyrell

Bintz, Dusti McKenzie, Bradley Young, Emily Hope, Chance Dumont, Nathan Jurak and Zachary Duguid receiving honours awards.

F. G. Miller Crusaders Class of 2000 marked the end of a chapter of their lives on prom night, with Tori Warawa and Tamara Rainboth taking a light-hearted look at their classmates as class historians and class presidents Peter Danyluk and Laura Oszust offering them some timely advice for the future. Elk Point Elementary students Gregory Babcock, Ashley Campbell, Kameron Ballas, Brett Lindquist, Alexis Millar, Sarah Zarowny, Corey Smereka, Trish Yarmuch, Shayden Anderson, Megan Millar, Amanda Marianchuk, Brittany Ballas, Sage Lowry, Helen Ramful and Darby Brooker took home the Grace Franks Awards.

2005

There was thunder without and moonlit magic within the Crusaders' castle as the knights and ladies of the Class of 2005 celebrated the end of their high school years, with Shyla Bullock, Valerie Friesen and Brett Hahn giving the class message and Corbin Poitras saluting his classmates, their families and their communities in song. Alberta's Centennial was the Canada Day theme, with parade entries saluting the history of health care, education, the lasting legacy of our families and the transition from plow to petroleum.

2010

The RCMP Safety Bear checked out the territory as he led the Canada Day parade through the streets of Elk Point on a bright and sunny July 1, which saw Olivia Rose Leaf, hip-hop dancers Hannah and Madeline Ululate and the Frog Lake Star Hoop Dancers among the stage show entertainers, Jean and Vanessa Ockerman win the Farm Survival Challenge, and Mason Smith win the Canada Day Idol competition. Lorraine Quinney topped the first flight at the Second Annual Diamond Drillbit Ladies' Golf Tournament, where fourth flight winner Lisa Fortin won the draw for the coveted drillbit necklace.

53rd Stoney Lake Stampede a roaring success

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Stoney Lake Stampede, a well-loved tradition 53 years in the making, burst out of the chutes this weekend, thrilling excellent crowds with fun and wild west action. Saturday's ranch rodeo, trade show, shower-plagued evening rodeo and open-air dance and Sunday morning's pancake breakfast and cowboy church service set the stage for what announcer Bernie Poitras called "the championship finals," as the final lineup of a total of 311 competitors prepared to outscore Saturday's leaders.

Saturday's top score prevailed in the Bareback Riding, where Connor Bibaud of Stony Plain and Australian cowboy Luke Matkis each scored a 65, but could not displace Saturday's leader, Jessey Lanin, who scored a 70 on Thompson Rodeo's Kinky Kora.

Nor were there any winning rides in Sunday's Novice Horse Riding, Dawson Hay's 64 point ride on Fireweed standing firm for the win, or in Tie Down Roping, where Bill Melaney's 8.8-second run could not be equaled.

Saturday's leader, Samuel Osborne, also stayed on top in the Saddle Bronc, where he earned 78 points on Corky Emotions, Ben Lees of Australia coming closest with Sunday's top score of 71 on Franklin Heights.

The fastest Ladies' Barrel Racing run of the weekend also came before the final go, Kerri Babcock rounding the cloverleaf in 16.223 seconds, well ahead of Sunday's competitors. None of the Junior Barrels competitors could match Saturday's leader either, Kelli Acreman taking first place with a time of 16.600.

The Junior Bulls proved too much for both days' riders, with no qualified rides and some fairly spectacular buck-offs. The senior Bull Riding also went to a Saturday competitor, Jordan Wasieco, with a 78 on Borrowed Time, that same bull taking Sunday's only successful rider, Rylon Reid of Grand Prairie, to the pay window with an excellent 75-point ride.

The weekend's best Steer Wrestling, Pee wee Barrel Racing and Team Roping competition did wait for Sunday, however. Australian Jake Roots edged out a 5.5-second takedown on Saturday with a rapid 4.4 in the Steer Wrestling, Pee wee Barrel Racing went to Ashley Keith of Barrhead with a time of 16.970 seconds, the fastest run of the day for any of the three age groups, and Orin Ellis and Ahshton Lehmann of Iron River got the job done in 4.2 seconds in the Team Roping to edge out Cole and David Smith's 5.3 score.

In the extremely challenging Calf Scramble, Konnor Poitras, Jaci Marcoux and Ethan Plamondon were the fastest to catch the wily critters.

And speaking of wily critters, the four teams competing in the Corey Marcoux Memorial Stoneboat Race found themselves up against some serious competition from some long horned ladies who didn't fancy getting roped, saddled or otherwise encumbered, the Stoney Lake Outlaws team, Jason Marcoux, Dave Hebert and Dylan Ganzer, the first to get the job done and claim this year's title.

Sunday's rodeo also featured the annual Best Dressed Cowboy and Cowgirl contest, with Pat Swedgan presenting the medals to Kurt Yaremko and Tori Stark.

Bonnyville bronc buster Tyrel Charlton found his Sunday ride on 'Glacier Bear'; anything but cool and refreshing, his 63 point score no match for Saturday's leader Samuel Osborne.

Sox bats get the job done

Doesn't happen every day but sometimes all it takes is one swing of the bat! And when it's your team it sure is fun! It was tough trying to get on base for the Bantam Sox in their first game down in Drayton Valley this past weekend. Three up, three down for the first three innings when the Sox faced the Red Deer Braves starting pitcher who did a terrific job of keeping the boys off the board all the way until the bottom of the fourth inning before Dustyn "Dust Pan" Pankiw cranked a triple, the next batter Nick "KKK" Tucker grounded out to the short stop, but he brought in the first run for the Sox, the game 4 to 1 at the bottom of four, for the Braves.... The bottom of the fifth, Landon "Promised Land" Vasseur gets on base with a single, two batters later Cody "the Babe" Fairbairn walks, the lead-off man Matthew "Big Red" Nahirniak get hit by a pitch and is sent down to first. Two out and the bases are juiced for Dustyn "Dust Pan" Pankiw who steps to the dish and with one swing of the bat jacked a grand slam over the left field fence out of the park giving the Sox the 5 to 4 lead. Sox chucker

Review Sports

Corbin "Crusher" Ockerman doing a super job, striking out nine batters, three of the runs scored were unearned, scored on errors by the fielders; the boys, pumped up now, adding two more, the final score 7 to 4 for the Sox.

No contest at all in the second game against the Drayton Valley, the Sox having batting practice while winning this one 24 to 1 in five innings. And that was not even stealing bases; they just kept moving the runners with their batting. Up in Whitecourt two weekends ago the Giants had beaten the Sox 10 to 7, so you go figure that one!!!! Christian "Wheels"

Castle Wasson with three singles and a double, Denver "Godzilla" Budzilka with a single and a double, "Taylor Made" Pankiw with two singles, her brother "Dust Pan" the man cranks another one over the wall, this time with only two men on base.

The Pee wee Sox hosting a round robin at home this past weekend, playing four games in two days, There was no score until the sixth inning against Sherwood Park, then the Sox scored five in the seventh inning to win 5 to 4. Against Barrhead they lost in the bottom of the seventh after taking a three-run lead. Some great pitching by "Ty Cobb" Smereka and Grady "Gravy Train" Frazer, Matthew Quinney with a triple, the "Stafford Streak: laying down some awesome sacrifice bunts.

Now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week. "Home run hitters strike out a lot." Last week's answer to: "Why does everybody stand up and sing "Take me out to the ballgame" when they're already there?"- Larry Anderson.

WINNERS - Elk Point 4-H Multi Club's float, featuring their chuckwagon and beaver mascot placed second in Children's Clubs and Organizations, while Elk Point Municipal Library was third in Adult Clubs and Organizations with a float promoting their Summer Reading Program (below).

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of

who tragically passed away in an airplane crash on July 8, 1965.

This day is remembered and quietly kept,
no word are needed, we'll never forget.

There is a corner of our hearts,
that is set aside for you.

As long as life and memories last
We will always love and remember you.

Always loved and remember and never forgotten
Sister - Vera & Berg Families

WE KNOW YOU'RE ONE-OF-A-KIND.
So, why be one of 200?

Hey, we've got nothing against bigger colleges and universities. In fact, we get along just fine. But when you have the choice between getting a top-level education at a small college in your own backyard, where you're one of 24 students in a class versus hundreds, well...let's just say we think it's a no-brainer.

No matter where you're looking to go in life, you can get there from right here at Portage College. With small class sizes learning is always a personal and rewarding experience.
